

D-175

Early 19th Century

Captain Fook's House, site

Church Creek

Private

So called because a Captain Fook lived here in the 1870s, although the house was probably standing fifty years before that time. The house is composed of three small units, the end units having two windows and a central door while the middle section has only one window and door.

-----
See also: Church Creek, Vol. IV

12x1.72

50% D-175

... D-175

Capt. Fook's House